Re: Leo A. Cormier, Jr.

Dear Ken:

On your recent charter application for Troop 550 you included the registration for Leo A. Cormier, Jr., [REDACTED], Garden Grove, California, to serve as Committeeman in Troop 550. We regret to inform you that we cannot accept Mr. Cormier's application.

When informing Mr. Cormier about this, simply tell him that the National Council does not wish to accept his registration in the Boy Scouts of America. If Mr. Cormier should raise any questions as to reason, you might indicate to him that registration in the Boy Scouts of America is a privilege and not a right and that the National Council reserves the prerogative to accept those individuals it feels will best serve the interests of the organization.

We are herewith enclosing a credit notice for $2.00 representing a refund of Mr. Cormier's registration fee. Kindly delete his name from your records.

Sincerely,

ARTICLE II — PURPOSE: CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT — CITIZENSHIP TRAINING

The purpose of this corporation is as set forth in the original certificate of incorporation under the laws of the District of Columbia, dated February 8, 1910, and restated in Section 3 of the charter granted by Congress June 15, 1916, as follows: "That the purpose of this corporation shall be to promote, through organization, and cooperation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance, and kindred virtues, using the methods which are now in common use by Boy Scouts by placing emphasis upon the Scout Oath or Promise and Law for character development, citizenship training, and physical fitness."—Constitution of the Boy Scouts of America.

GRANTING COMMISSIONS AND CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP

The Constitution and Bylaws of the Boy Scouts of America authorize commissions and certificates of membership only to those who subscribe to the Scout Oath or Promise, and Law, the declaration of religious principle (as printed below), and its Constitution and Bylaws and are citizens of the United States, or have legally declared their intentions to become citizens of the U. S.

ARTICLE IV—DECLARATION OF RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLE

"Section 1. The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no boy can grow into the best kind of citizenship without recognizing his obligation to God. In the first part of the Boy Scout's Oath or Promise the boy declares, 'On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law.' The recognition of God as the ruling and leading power in the universe and the grateful acknowledgment of His favors and blessings are necessary to the best type of citizenship and are wholesome precepts in the education of the growing boy. No matter what the boy may be—Catholic or Protestant or Jew—this fundamental need of good citizenship should be kept before him. The Boy Scouts of America therefore recognizes the religious element in the training of the boy, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in its attitude toward that religious training. Its policy is that the organization or institution with which the Boy Scout is connected shall give definite attention to his religious life."

"Only persons willing to subscribe to this declaration of principle shall be entitled to certificates of leadership in carrying out the Boy Scout program."

THE SCOUT OATH OR PROMISE

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE CUB SCOUT PROMISE

I, (), promise to do my best
To do my duty to God
And my country;
To be square, and
To obey the Law of the Pack.

THE SCOUT LAW

1. A Scout is trustworthy.
A Scout's honor is to be trusted. If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie or by cheating or by not doing exactly a given task, when trusted on his honor, he may be directed to hand over his Scout badge.
2. A Scout is loyal.
He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due, his Scout leader, his home and parents and country.
3. A Scout is helpful.
He must be prepared at any time to save life, help injured persons, and share the home duties. He must do at least one Good Turn to somebody every day.
4. A Scout is friendly.
He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout.
5. A Scout is courteous.
He is polite to all, especially to women, children, old people, and the weak and helpless. He must not take pay for being helpful or courteous.
6. A Scout is kind.
He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.
7. A Scout is obedient.
He obeys his parents, Scoutmaster, patrol leader, and all other duly constituted authorities.
8. A Scout is cheerful.
He smiles whenever he can. His obedience to orders is prompt and cheerful. He never shirks nor grumbles at hardships.
9. A Scout is thrifty.
He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing, and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay, but must not receive tips for courtesies or Good Turns.
10. A Scout is brave.
He has the courage to face danger in spite of fear and to stand up for the right against the coaxings of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies, and defeat does not down him.
11. A Scout is clean.
He keeps clean in body and thought; stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits; and travels with a clean crowd.
12. A Scout is reverent.
He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

Orange Empire Council, No. 39 PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. Hickenbottom:

On your recent Transmittal Report No. 35, you included the scouter application for Leo Adrich Cormier, Jr., [REDACTED], Garden Grove, California, to serve as Commissioner of Pack 3094, District #1. We regret to inform you that we cannot accept Mr. Cormier's application.

When informing Mr. Cormier about this, simply tell him that the National Council does not wish to accept his registration in the Boy Scouts of America. If Mr. Cormier should raise any questions as to reason, you might indicate to him that registration in the Boy Scouts of America is a privilege and not a right and that the National Council reserves the prerogative to accept those individuals it feels will best serve the interests of the organization.

We are herewith refunding Mr. Cormier's registration fee of $2.70. Please delete his name from your records.

LEO ADRIEN CORMIER has a long record with convictions for sex perversion. In one case he was involved with two young girls, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. At the subsequent hearing Mrs. [REDACTED] blamed the girls. This man is not employed. The house in which they live is very poorly maintained and is filthy. Dear Bill:

Very sorry to learn that you apparently have had a situation develop in connection with the Cormiers. It is very seldom that we are ever advised that a couple as such should be placed on the file together for this type of offense.

Enclosed are two confidential record sheets which we would appreciate your filling out and returning to us as soon as possible, together with any substantiating documents that may be available pertaining to each situation, such as copy of police record, statement from the boys involved or the parents of the boys, or any newspaper clippings. This information will enable us to identify Mr. and Mrs. Cormier should they ever again attempt to register in the Scouting program.

What do you want to do regarding the Neighborhood Den since it has only been in existence since December 1965 and does not expire until February 1967? Since we have removed the Cubmaster, do you intend to replace the leadership or do you plan to drop the unit? If you plan to drop the unit, please write us a letter to that effect.
